

Roy Krueger

About Roy

Roy Krueger has been involved in various aspects of leadership for more than 36 years. His last three leadership roles in the US Army included Operations Officer for JRTC and Fort Polk, LA, Battalion Commander, and Chief of Doctrine and Training for the Infantry Center.

Roy taught leadership for the Master in Organization Leadership Program at Marian University (Fond du Lac, WI). He has trained area businesses in the areas of leadership, interpersonal skills, and team building for the last six years. His background has been a continuous fertile learning and seasoning process that has produced a relatable trainer who can focus his audience on the nuances of leading, managing, and following.

Specialty Areas

- Leadership
- Lean Operations
- Team Building
- Problem Solving

Education

Bachelor of Science,
Geography,
University of Wisconsin
- Platteville

Master of Science,
Organizational Leadership and Quality,
Marian University

Dale Carnegie Program
Graduate

Certified Achieve
Global instructor

Leading Through People & Processes

A collaborative
partnership between: ENVISION MORaine PARK
Greater Fond du Lac Technical College