YP of the Month: Lexi McGrath

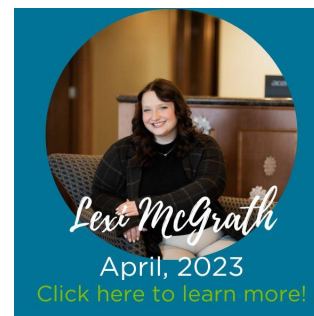

Congratulations to Lexi McGrath on being recognized as our April YP of the Month!

Lexi is a realtor with Klapperich Real Estate. Lexi is all about relationships. Whether it is the work relationships or her best friends, Lexi cherishes those moments and experiences.

Oh, and she loves her cats and her houseplants. :)

Learn more about Lexi here.

Do you know someone who deserves recognition for all they do for their community? Each month, a member of the Young Professionals of Fond du Lac is highlighted for their contributions. Take a moment to nominate someone you feel deserves this special acknowledgement.

POP 101

What is POP 101 you ask? It is Public Office Preparation 101.

Have you ever considered running for public office? But have no idea where to start? This is where you start!

Public Office Preparation 101 (POP101) is a program of Envision Greater Fond du Lac that engages community members in local nonpartisan political process by providing essential information and skills needed for success in public office. Participants will explore basic competencies, including how to navigate the paperwork process, fundraising and spending, campaigning, and building a public persona.

Casino Night Beneficiary Application Open

Each year, YPF organizes a major fundraiser for local organizations that make a positive impact in the greater Fond du Lac area: YPF Casino Night. The beneficiary is selected by the YPF Advisory Council.

To apply to become a beneficiary of YPF Casino Night, please fill out this application: application. On page two, be sure to share more about your organization and how the community would benefit if you were selected as beneficiary. Please limit responses to approximately 250 words. Applications are due by April 25.
