

work: A Small but Mighty Word

17th Annual Academic Symposium • March 12–13, 2024

Life significantly revolves around work.

It can be a calling or it can be punishment, not life giving. The magnitude of this simple four-letter word helps create identity and self-worth, assists in establishing societal norms and expectations, designs laws to regulate workplace, fairness and safety, and throughout history has shaped human culture.

Work impacts lives through:

- Declining Workforce
- Job "Choices"
- Generational Differences
- Leadership
- Human Dignity
- Retirement
- Labor Laws
- Sex Trafficking
- Immigration
- Women's Work in Literature
- Incarcerated Individuals
