...and now, a message from our chair...

October kicks off our Future Five Nominations!

This is your chance to shine a spotlight on the emerging leaders and rising stars in our community. Every nominee is celebrated—whether or not they're selected as one of the future five winners. As of today, October 1st, the event is live! Check it out here.

Looking ahead to November, we have more exciting things happening behind the scenes with Future Five. We have an exciting Midweek Meet-up at the Cellar District to look forward to on November 12th as well!

Meet Josh Shell - October YP of the month!!

Josh is the owner of Badgerland Connections in Fond du Lac. Josh is motivated by his wife and children sharing that everything he does is for them. Josh mentioned that he loves the daily challenges that come with entrepreneurship stating, "Every day feels like a game of chess, and it keeps me on my toes!" He enjoys golfing, hunting, and just being in nature. Josh said, " Attitude and effort are everything. Be positive and put forth true effort. Success will follow."

Are you tired of feeling like there's never enough time to get everything done? If your days are consumed by a never-ending to-do list and constant demands pulling you in every direction, it's time for a change. Join Jenna Piché, Time Leverage Expert, for “5 Ways to Save 10 Hours a Week” as she shares practical strategies, real-life insights, and actionable tools to help you focus on what matters most, work more efficiently, and build a fulfilling career and life without burnout or sacrifice.

1. Practical strategies to prioritize what's important, tackle your workload, and regain control of an overwhelming to-do list.

2. Insights into the barriers that prevent you from controlling your time and actionable steps to take charge of your schedule.
 3. A clear framework to break free from the “Hustle Fallacy” and create sustainable growth and fulfillment without compromising your health or family life.
